HONORS

The F.F.A. boys nominated three candidates for F.F.A. Sweetheart, and the sweetheart was decided by the amount of money collected by each girl. This money was placed in the F.F.A. fund and used to help finance the stock shows.

Tina Davenport represented the chapter and won the honor of being County Sweetheart. For her talent, she twirled her baton to the music of "Music Box Dancer".

Tina has won numerous honors in 4-H competition. At the McAlester Livestock show, she won the Ladies' Lead competition in the senior division, as she showed her lamb. She and the lamb wore matching suits made of wool.

Students Learning About Their Surroundings

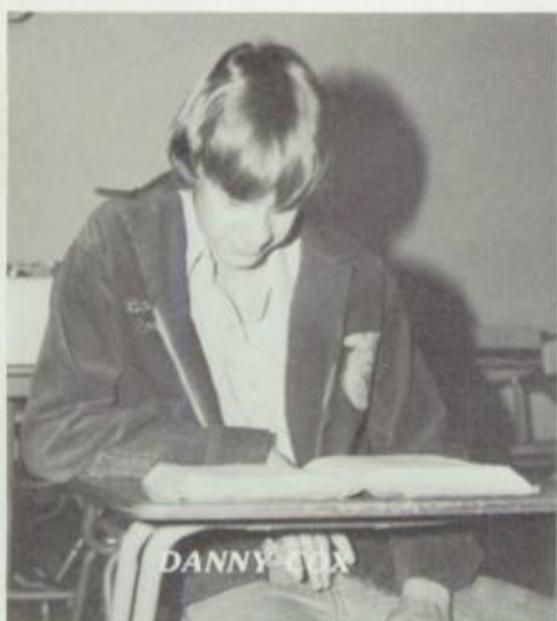

Science

There are many different science courses that one may take. The ones offered at Quinton High School are physical science, biology, and chemistry. During the 78-79 school year three students won awards for outstanding work. They were Doug Roberts with Mr. Peters, eighth grade science; Donald Pryor, ninth grade science with Mrs. Powell; and Joann Bray Needham, biology with Mrs. Powell.

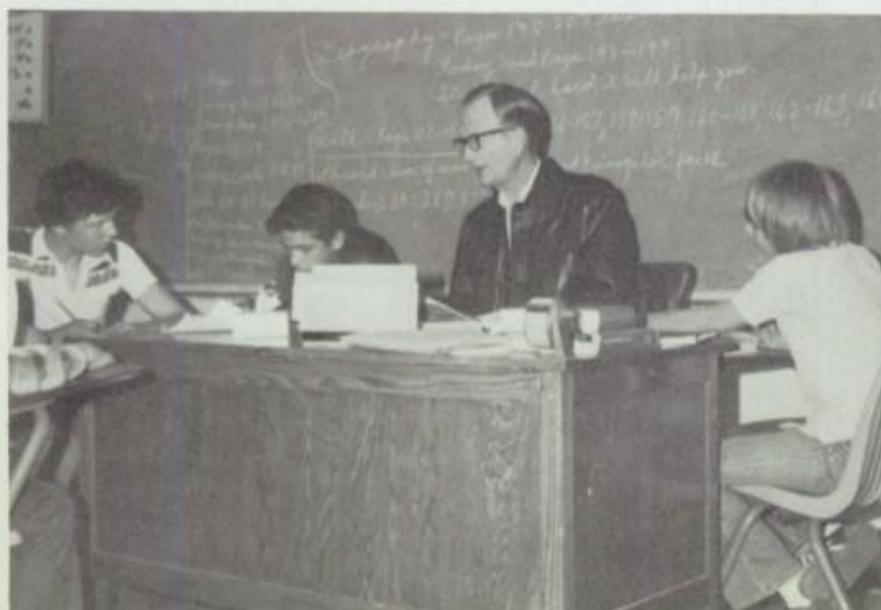

Students Learning About World Affairs Past And Present

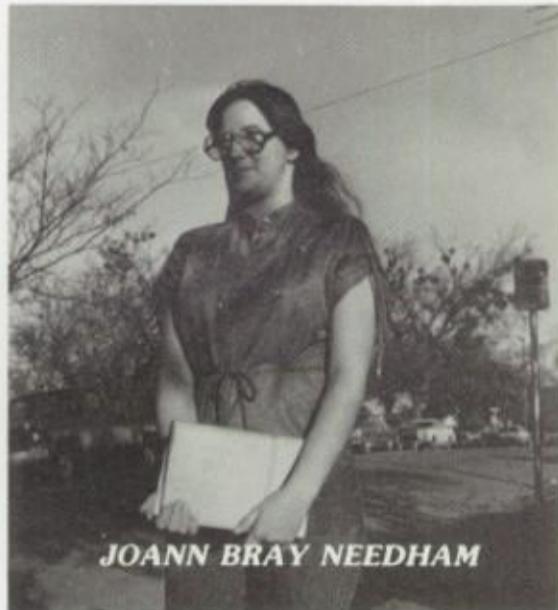

Social Studies

Social studies students are learning about the world around them through civics, Oklahoma history, and geography. Four students were rewarded for their outstanding work in these four courses during the 78-79 school year. They were Danny Cox, civics, with Mrs. Billington; Sam Murano, Oklahoma history, with Mrs. Schiller; Betty Burright, geography, with Mr. Green; and Janai Fowler, American history, with Mr. Trotter. We sincerely hope these students will keep up the good work.

Mathematics

This year many skills are being taught at Quinton High School. The arts and crafts students have made various small objects, such as needlepoint, macrame, plaster of paris, painting and many more projects.

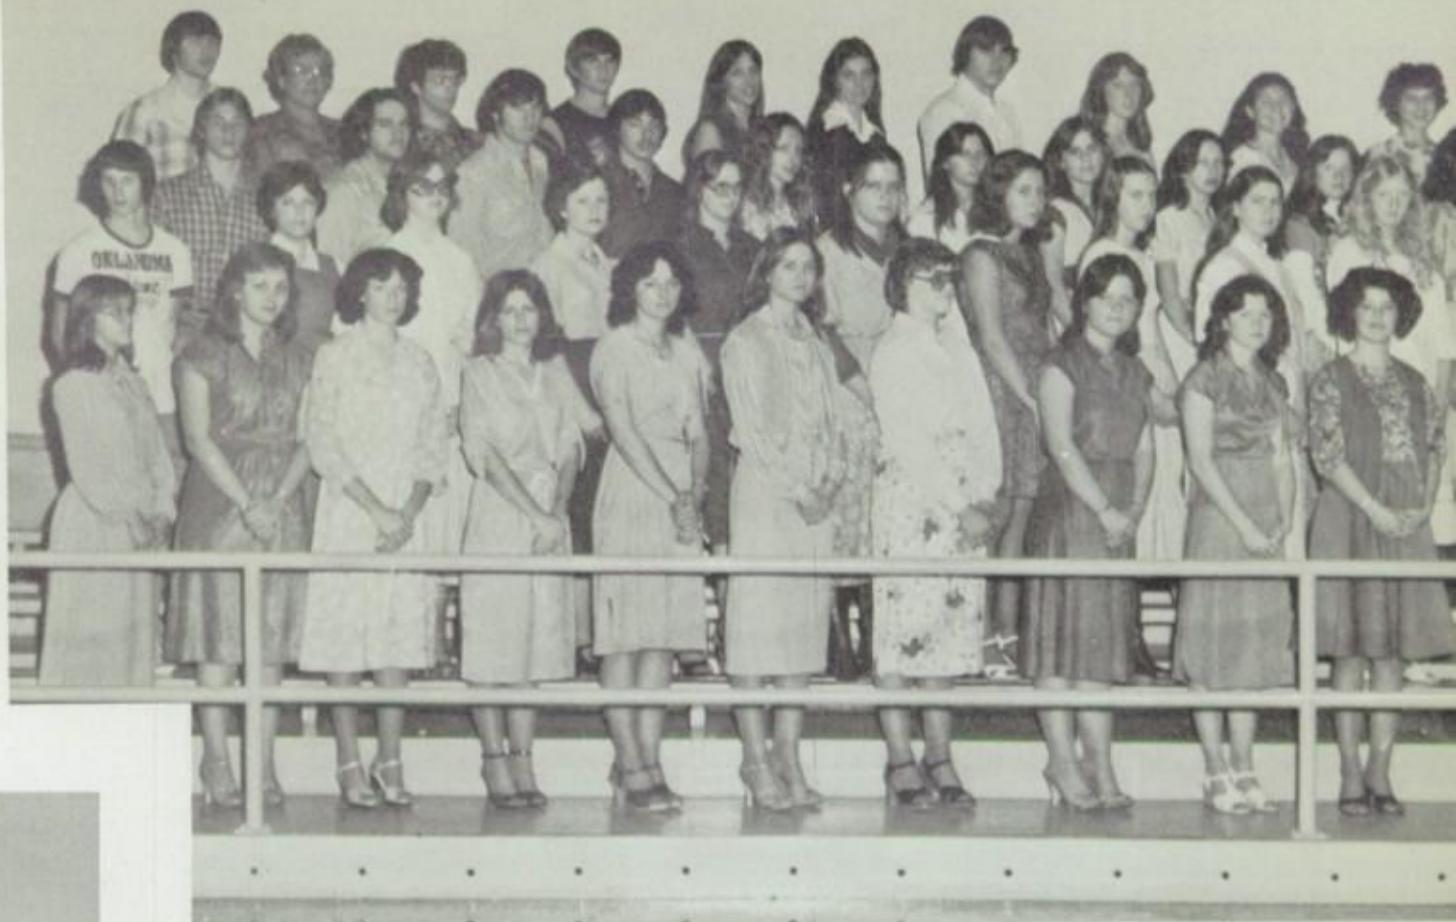

In our woodshop class a new aroma has been added-the sweet perfumed smell of girls. They are not treated special or anything like that. They get dirty just like all the guys. The girls have done very well as craftsmen or "craftladies". In woodshop one learns all the different types of tools and also safety precautions. Students learn to make cedar chests, bookcases, gun racks, clocks, tables and so on.

Our home economic classes are a little more varied this year. We now have boys who are learning to cook, sew, and make household objects. They have caused big laughs but then sometimes they may do better than the girls. The boys are enjoying a good education in home economics.

This year's Glee Club has been kept busy getting ready for all the performances of the year. They sing at both the Christmas and spring concerts. They also sing at promotion, baccalaureate, and commencement. Last spring they went to singing contest at Ada in three groups. One group received a two and two groups received a three. This year they will be participating at Ada and are hoping to improve their ratings. This was Mrs. Adcock's second year at QHS and she has done a great job. We're very proud of our Glee Club for all their great effort. Pictured below is Tricia Sudderth who won the Glee Club award for 1979.

Students Learn That FFA Is A Part Of Everyone's Life Style

Janai Fowler received the 1979 State Farmer Award. She was the first girl from Quinton ever to receive the honor. Janai was a member of FFA for three years and served as secretary her senior year.

Johnny Gibson is a candidate for the 1980 State Farmer award. He will be the thirty-first boy from Quinton to receive the award. Johnny has been a member of FFA for four years and has held office two years.

The 1979 FFA award winners were Janai Fowler and Johnny Pryor.

The annual sausage sales was a great success again this year. There was a total of 480 sticks of Blue and Gold Sausage sold. Special recognition went to Jimmy Davenport who sold sixty-eight sticks, to Pam Pryor who sold sixty-two sticks and to Patrick Stanfield who sold sixty sticks.

Initiation was a very exciting moment for the freshmen entering FFA as Greenhands. There are four girls and fourteen boys learning what FFA and being a Greenhand is all about.

Music Makes Learning More Enjoyable For The Grade School Band

This year's fifth graders are eager to learn to play an instrument. They are excited about playing at the Christmas Concert and Spring Concert. Even though these fifteen beginners have not played before, they are learning much and really progressing.

The sixth graders learned to play instruments last year. These eighteen students are playing with the seventh and eighth grade class. They are also playing at the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert. The sixth graders are excited about learning to march next year.

These eager faces show that they are more than willing to fill the vacant places left by the seniors.

Band Struts

Their Stuff

This year's band has been very busy under the direction of Mrs. Adcock. They have participated in many parades this year including the Muskogee Fair Parade where they won two second-place trophies, Stigler's Christmas Parade, Muskogee's Christmas Parade where they won one second-place trophy, and Quinton's Christmas Parade. They also played for ten football games this year. After the football games and Christmas parades were finished, the band kept busy getting ready for the Christmas and spring concerts. The band will also attend band competition this year at McAlester. This is Quinton's largest band ever. Mrs. Adcock has sixty-three students in grades seventh through twelfth who have put much effort into the program to make this years band one of the best. The band will be saying good-bye to six seniors this year. They are Wayne Chapman, Tina Davenport, Sandy McDonald, Sam Murano, Tonya Sharp, and Debbie Thomas.

On the left are the five sections of band — flutes and clarinets, trumpets, saxophones, low brass and woodwinds, and percussion.

The student body enjoyed two plays, "Run, Robber, Run" presented by the fourth-hour speech students, and "Snow White and the Little Men" presented by the first-hour speech students, on November 15, 1979. The cast was Mrs. Vail's speech students and a few students who are not enrolled in speech but were interested in gaining experience in acting in front of an audience. The speech students plan to present another play in the spring.

Down Season

After five straight losses, the Savages kept their spirits up and came back to win their next four games and lose the last to Panama after a close and controversial game.

A new coaching staff and four all-conference players helped the savages to maintain their toughness.

Head coach Darrell Adcock, assistant coach Tom McBride, and assistants Don O'steen and Charles Burright coached the Savages to a four and three conference record.

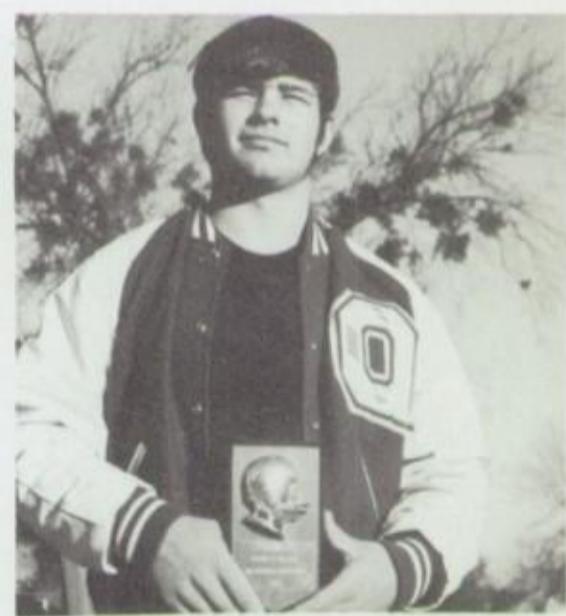

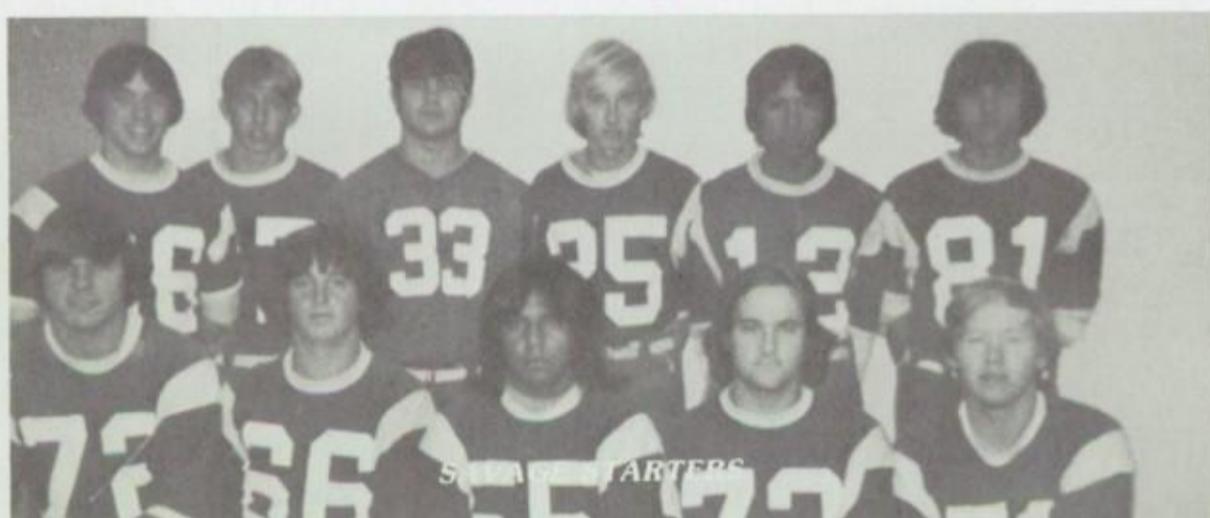

Marvin Sockey, Keith Pryor, Dee Gray, and James Williams were chosen as all-conference players.

Dee Gray and Keith Pryor are pictured as the winners of the 1978-79 football award. Keith was awarded the offensive award and Dee received the defensive award.

Dee Gray was chosen by the conference coaches as the 1979-1980 outstanding defensive player of the entire conference.

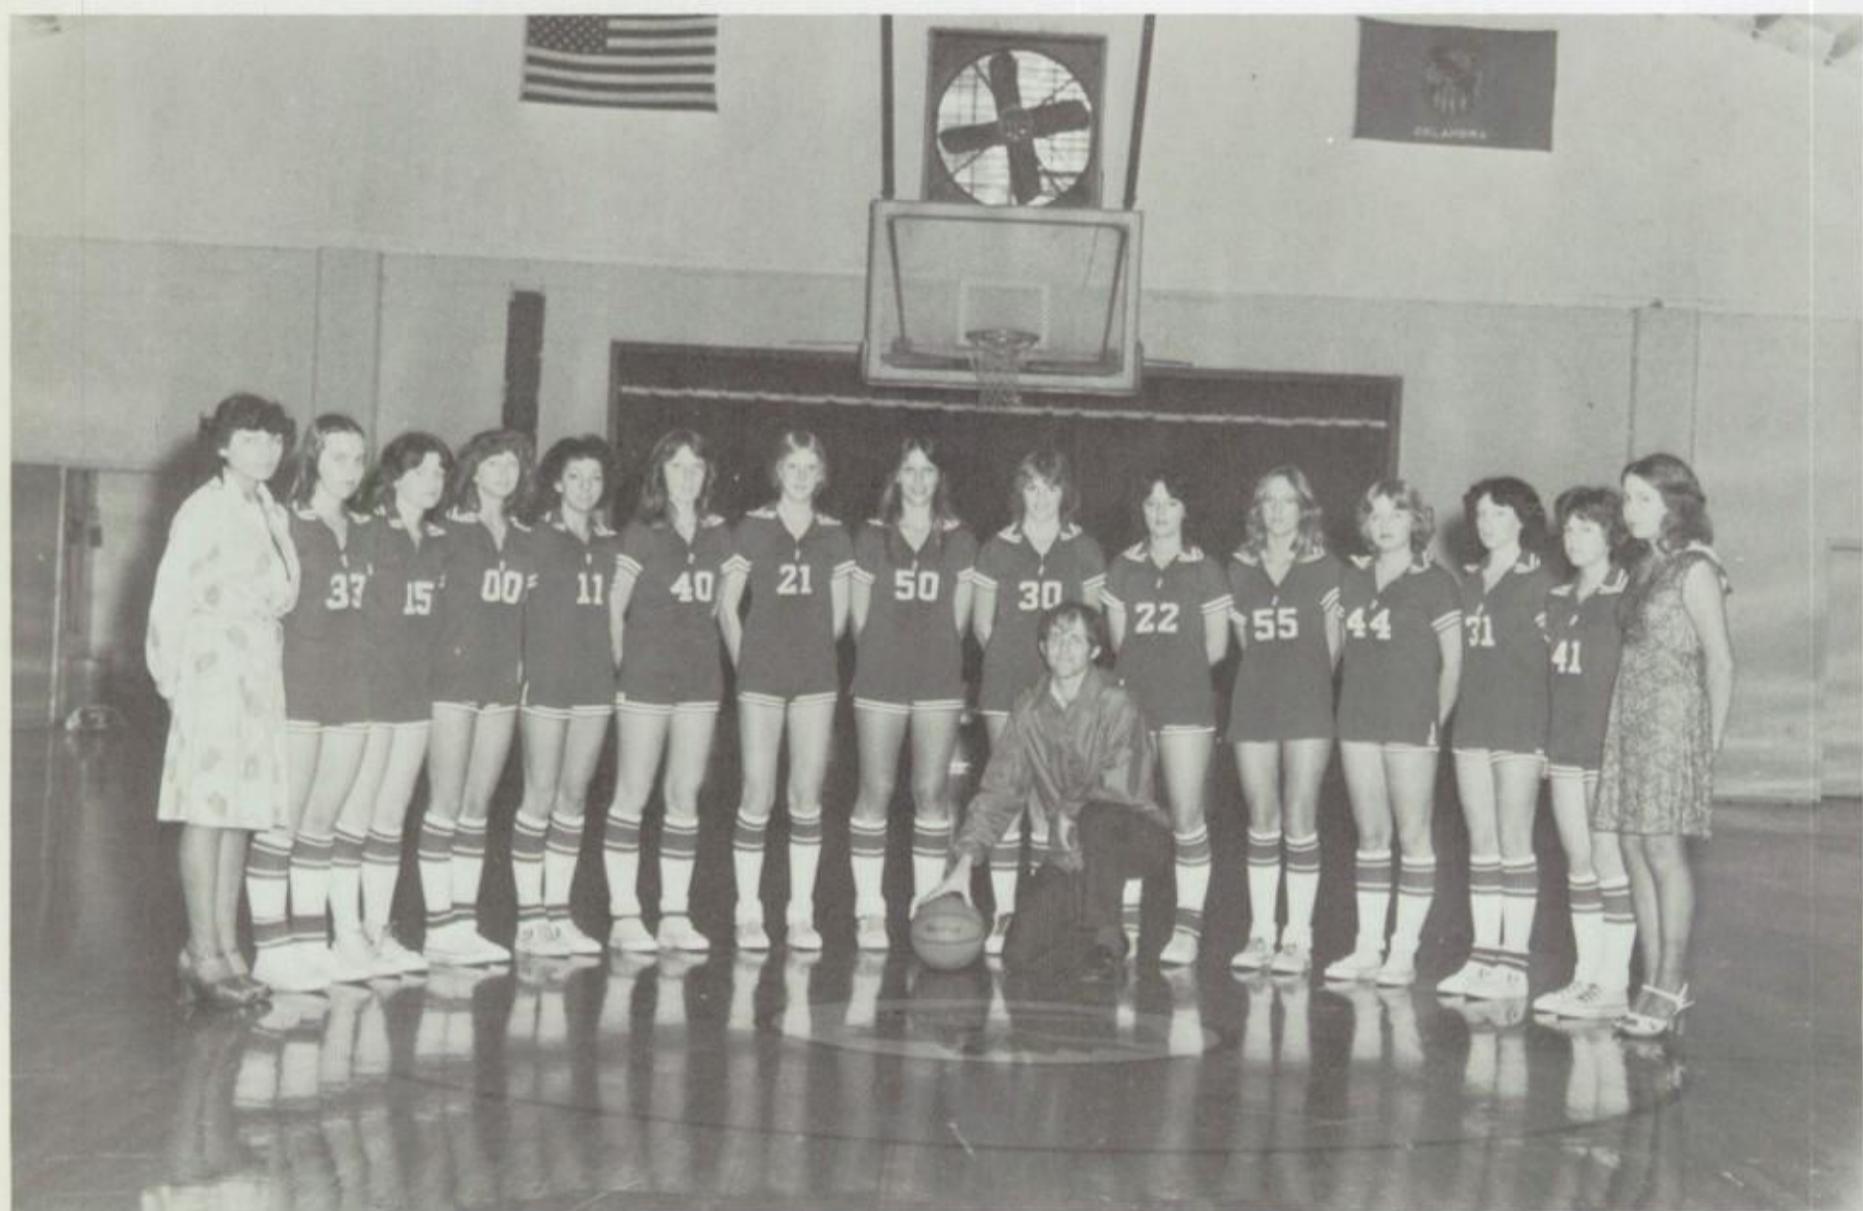

Congratulations, Dee.

The Savages will be losing nine seniors this spring, but we look forward to a strong, young team next year.

A Shot At

The 1979-80 basketball season was very rewarding for many people-the players, the coaches, and the fans. The players all pulled together for one common goal which was to win. They displayed an enormous amount of pride in their school and their teammates. Hard work and desire are definitely characteristic of a successful team. The players have improved in both confidence and skill and have compiled a very impressive record. Sports is not only having fun but it also provides many fulfilling experiences such as learning to get along with others and working as a team.

The track teams of 1979 had a very successful season. Four different teams participated in meets throughout the state.

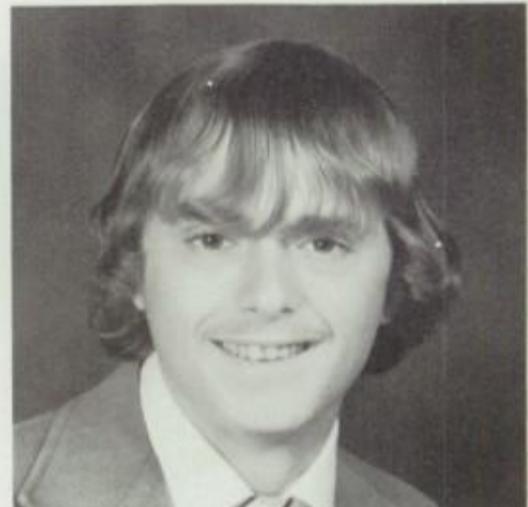

The high school boys' team did not retain the conference championship; however, there was much talent on the team.

The track awards were received by two seniors, Raymond Baker and Robert Davis.

The high school girls track team participated in three meets last year. The team consisted of five girls: Seniors Janet Adcock and Linda Madden; Juniors Donna Spicer, Debbie Thomas and Tina Davenport; and Sophomore Saundra Baker.

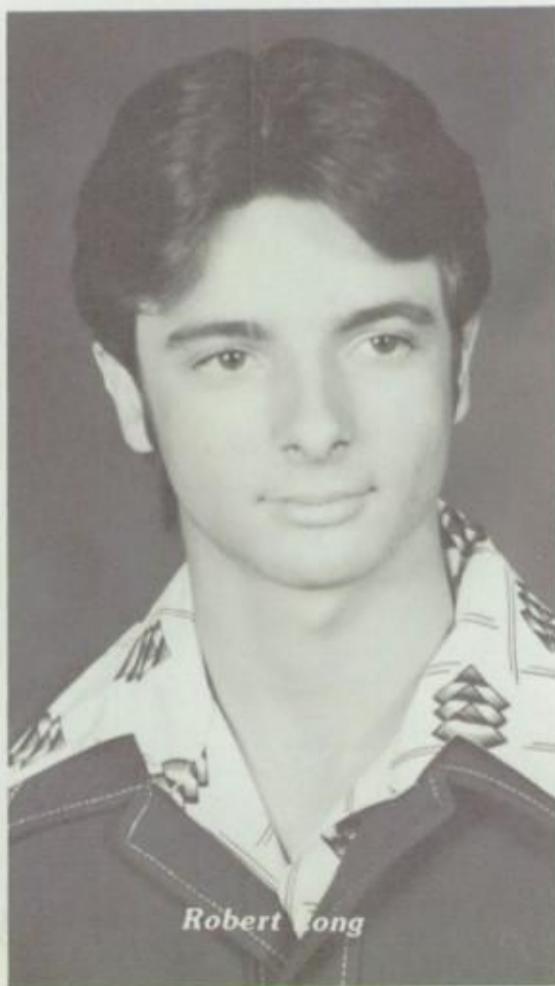

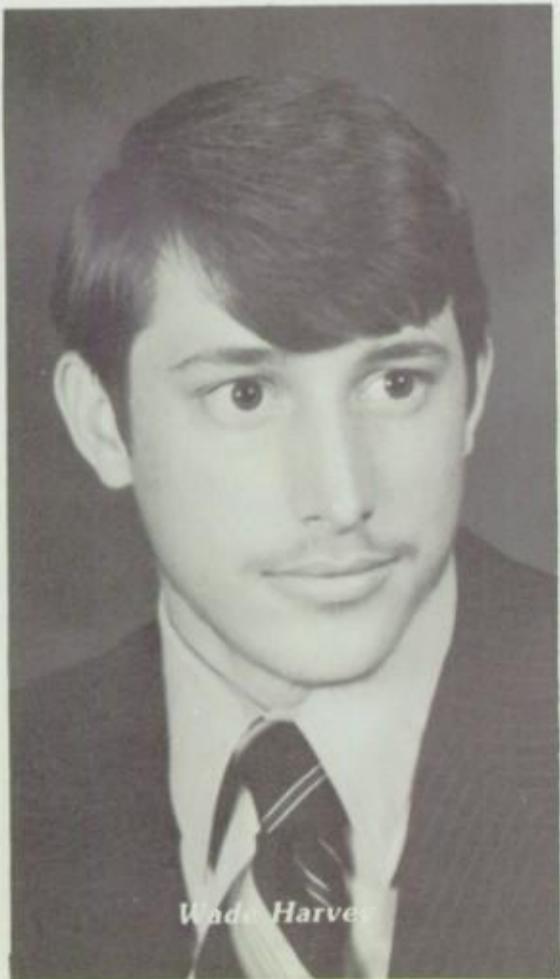

Seven freshmen headed the boys' junior high team to a challenging season. Nine seventh and eighth graders showed much interest in the team also. Winning awards went to Scotty Eakle and J.R. Needham.

The junior high girls' team had a very outstanding season. They took part in many track meets and won various awards and trophies.

Students Demonstrate Business Skills

Quinton's top students of commerce entered two commercial contests during the spring of 1979. They entered a contest held at Eastern Oklahoma State College and another at Connors State College.

Students from Quinton competed in such areas as Typing I, general business, accounting, and Typing II. The students who entered at Eastern placed in the top ten in their respective tests. Beth Hood, competing in Typing I, placed first at Eastern and second at Connors. The school as a whole placed fourth out of nineteen participating schools at Eastern Oklahoma State College.

One student from each class was allowed to compete at Eastern and two students from each class competed at Connors.

We sincerely hope that the students who attend contest this year and the following years will do as well as these students have done.

GOOD PERFORMANCES HIGHLIGHT YEAR

Competitive speech was started at QHS in the fall of 1978. The different events are prose (any literary delivery that is not drama or poetry), humorous or dramatic interp (using voice and facial expressions only to interpret at least two characters), original oratory (a speech written and delivered by the student), standard oratory (memorizing and delivering a speech written by another), and poetry (using facial expressions and voice to interp a poem).

Last year's contest winners were Raymond Baker and Mike Gutherie in humorous duet, Sue Dugger in prose, and Deanna Monks in poetry and prose.

The 1980 contest winners from QHS are Carla Oliver who won second place in standard oratory, Mike Hamlin who won third place in standard oratory, Sherrie Williams who won second place in humorous interp, Vonda McKee who won second place in humorous interp, Tina Ross who won first place in humorous interp, Jeff Carter and Tina Ross who won second place in humorous duet, and Tricia Sudderth and Dee Gray who won third place in dramatic duet.

We offer our congratulations to these people.

The Quinton High School Band participated in four parades and performed excellently in all of them.

The first parade was the Muskogee State Fair Parade. Quinton placed second out of nine in division and second place for the auxiliary unit (drum major, twirlers, flag girls) out of twenty-three.

The band marched for the Stigler Christmas Parade and the Muskogee Christmas Parade the same day. At Muskogee, Quinton took second place in the A and B classes combined.

The marching band led the way for the annual Quinton Christmas Parade, a huge success.

Later in the year, the band will attend the Strawberry Festival and participate in the parade there.

We are proud of the band for their hard work and determination all year long.

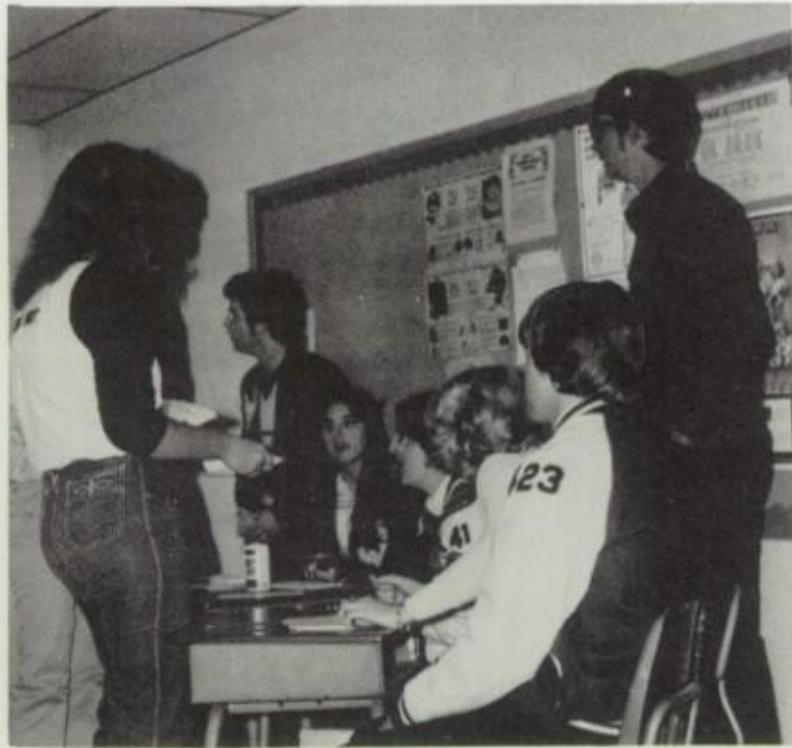

Livestock Show Participants

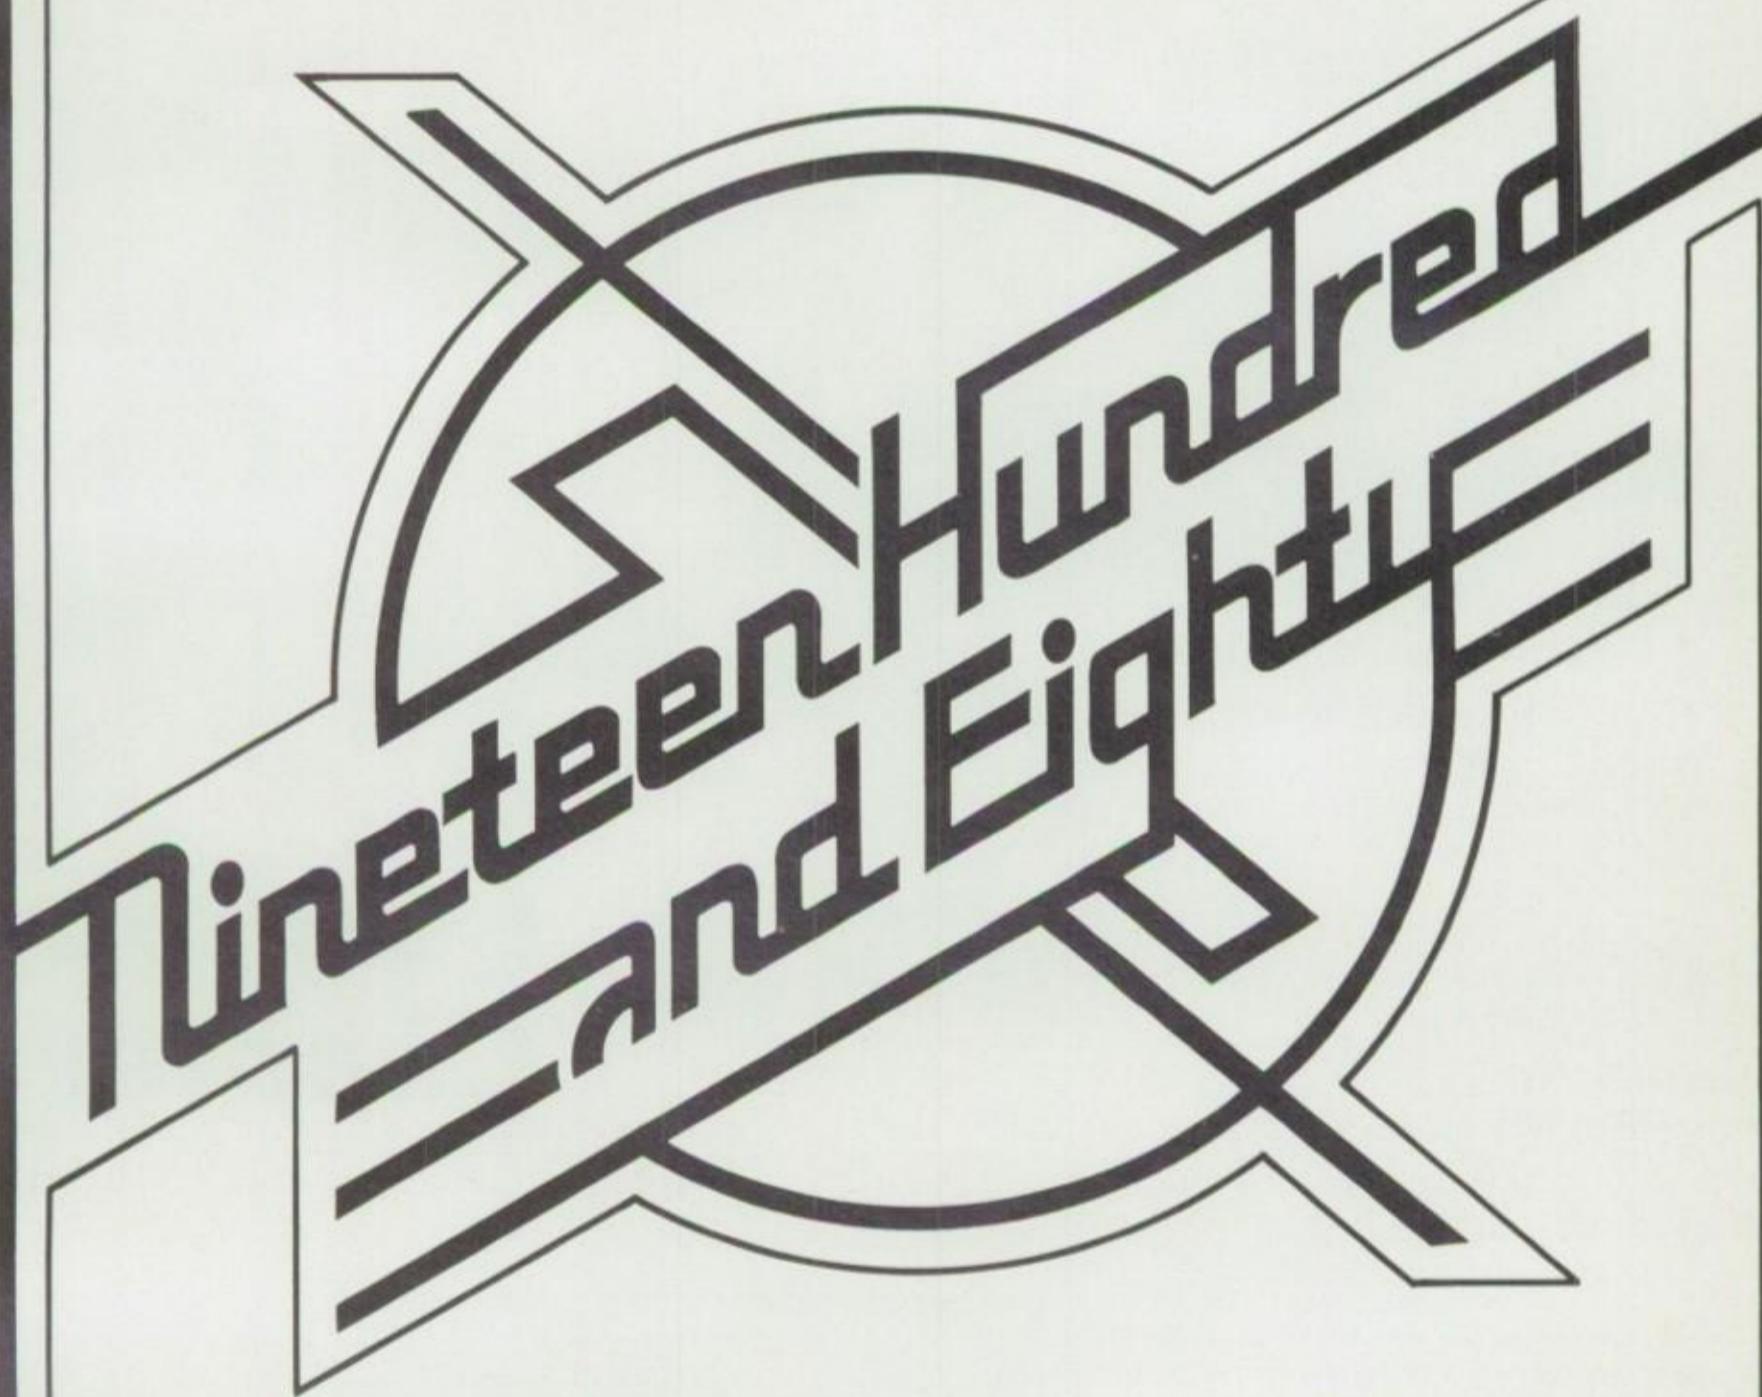

During the spring of 1979 and the fall of this year the F.F.A. and 4-H club members participated in the following livestock shows: The Quinton Livestock Show, Oklahoma-Arkansas Free State Fair, McAlester Stock Show, Kiowa Fair, and Muskogee State Fair. There were many trophies and ribbons received. At the conclusion of the McAlester Livestock Show, Mr. Shaw received a hat from the F.F.A. and 4-H club members who participated in the McAlester Livestock Show. This gesture showed their thanks and appreciation for his being a good F.F.A. leader and 4-H club supporter. From these shows there were six champions, seven reserve champions, and five showmanship trophies and plaques received. We are very proud of their accomplishments.

Quinton Student Council

In the spring of 1978-79 two representatives were chosen from each class as student council members. Keith Pryor and James Williams were chosen from the senior class. The junior class chose Deanna Eakle and Leslie Shelton. Teresa Fowler and Donald Pryor were chosen from the sophomore class. The freshmen class chose Lesa King and Doug Roberts. Carla Oxford and Westly Shelton were chosen from the eighth grade class.

After this club was organized, the members chose officers. The officers are President Keith Pryor, Vice-President James Williams, Secretary-Treasurer Lesa King, and Reporter Doug Roberts.

Different members led the Pledge of Allegiance at football pep rallies. They also decided on where to place the benches around school. Each of these people has represented his class well.

I Pledge:

My HEAD to clearer thinking,

My HEART to greater loyalty,

My HANDS to larger service and

My HEALTH to better living for my club, my community, and my country.

Monks

In the fall of 1978 a Speech Club was organized on campus to work in connection with competitive speech classes. Meetings are held to give the members a chance to practice events to be used in speech tournaments. Through participation in the Speech Club, the students will grow in oral communication skills, poise, and self-confidence — attributes which will continue to be assets for the students. The departmental award winners of 1978-79 were Deanna Monks and Charlotte Pugh. The officers are (L-R) James Carter, Junior Vice-President; Dee Gray, Treasurer; Ken Roberts, Secretary; Lisa Wimberly, Vice-President; Keith Pryor, President. The Speech Club advisor is Mrs. Virginia Vail.

The 1979-80 Quinton Savage Pep Club consists of 45 young ladies, including girls from 7-12.

The Pep Club cheered at all ball games, at home as well as out of town games. The members must adhere to strict rules of conduct at games in order to support their team.

Being in Pep Club involves many hours of cheering, plus much time spent in raising money to present a gift to the school.

The Pep Club chose to wear two different suits for the ball games.

The Pep Club for 1979-80 has a new sponsor, Mrs. Williams. We have all enjoyed her as our sponsor.

This is Mrs. Williams' first year of being a Pep Club sponsor.

Mrs. Vail assists as junior high cheerleader advisor.

The Pep Club officers for the year of 1979-80 are Charlene Stamper, Secretary; Leellean Stephens, President; Donna Burke, Treasurer; and Lesa Folsom, Vice-President.

PEOPLE

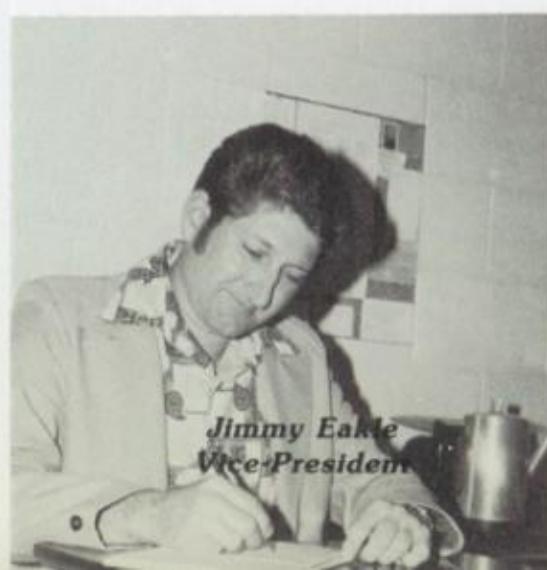

A d m i n i s t r a t i o n

We would like to recognize our superintendent, Mr. J.B. Badgett, for his ability to keep our school in the right condition.

Along with Mr. Badgett, his secretary Ruby Lowrimore, shows her loyalty and support by helping him.

We would like to thank our school board members, Bill Jordan, Larry Moody, Roy Stockton, J.C. Williams and Jimmy Eakle for their willingness to give their time and effort to support our school and get things done. Proof of the many improvements can be seen as one strolls around the elementary campus. New buildings are being constructed to better accomodate the student body.

We Appreciate

Bus Drivers

Cooks

Custodians

Support Personnel

In keeping a school running smoothly there has to be bus drivers, cooks, custodians, support personnel, and a lunchroom aide.

The bus drivers transport students to many different events. These faithful drivers are R.G. Ogden, Larry Hensley, Carnell Duvall, Dennis Satterfield, Cleo McKee, and Willis McKee.

The cooks are a very hard working group. The cooks plan a very nutritional breakfast and lunch each day. The cooks are Carol Johnson, LaVonne Ford, Delphia Miller, Vivian Henson, and Ilene Davis.

Doing odd jobs and helping keep the school in tip-top shape are the custodians' job. The custodians for this year are Dennis Satterfield, Donna Burgess, and Ralph Adcock.

The support personnel has been a great help this year. They help the teachers by doing many odd jobs. The support personnel are Cheryl Davis, Sharon Stiles, and Elaine Miller.

Last, but not least, is the lunchroom aide. The aide takes money for lunch. The lunchroom aide is Beth Aldies.

To all of these people we say "Thank You" for all the help you have given the students and faculty at Q.H.S.

touch and go
I meet a person,
shake hands and say hello;
And then we go,
separate,
do not relate.
Touch and go.

Too much of life is touch and go,
a look, a glance, a quick hello;
Too little time to get to know,
just touch a life,
and then let go.

Too much of life is touch and go,
an airport stop, a brush through town,
Too little time to put roots down,
just touch a place,
and hurry the pace.

I miss staying.
Long enough to know and be known;
Time enough to grow and be grown.
Touch and go?
No.¹

After our twelve years at Q.H.S., this is what has become of us after a small chapter in our lives has been closed.

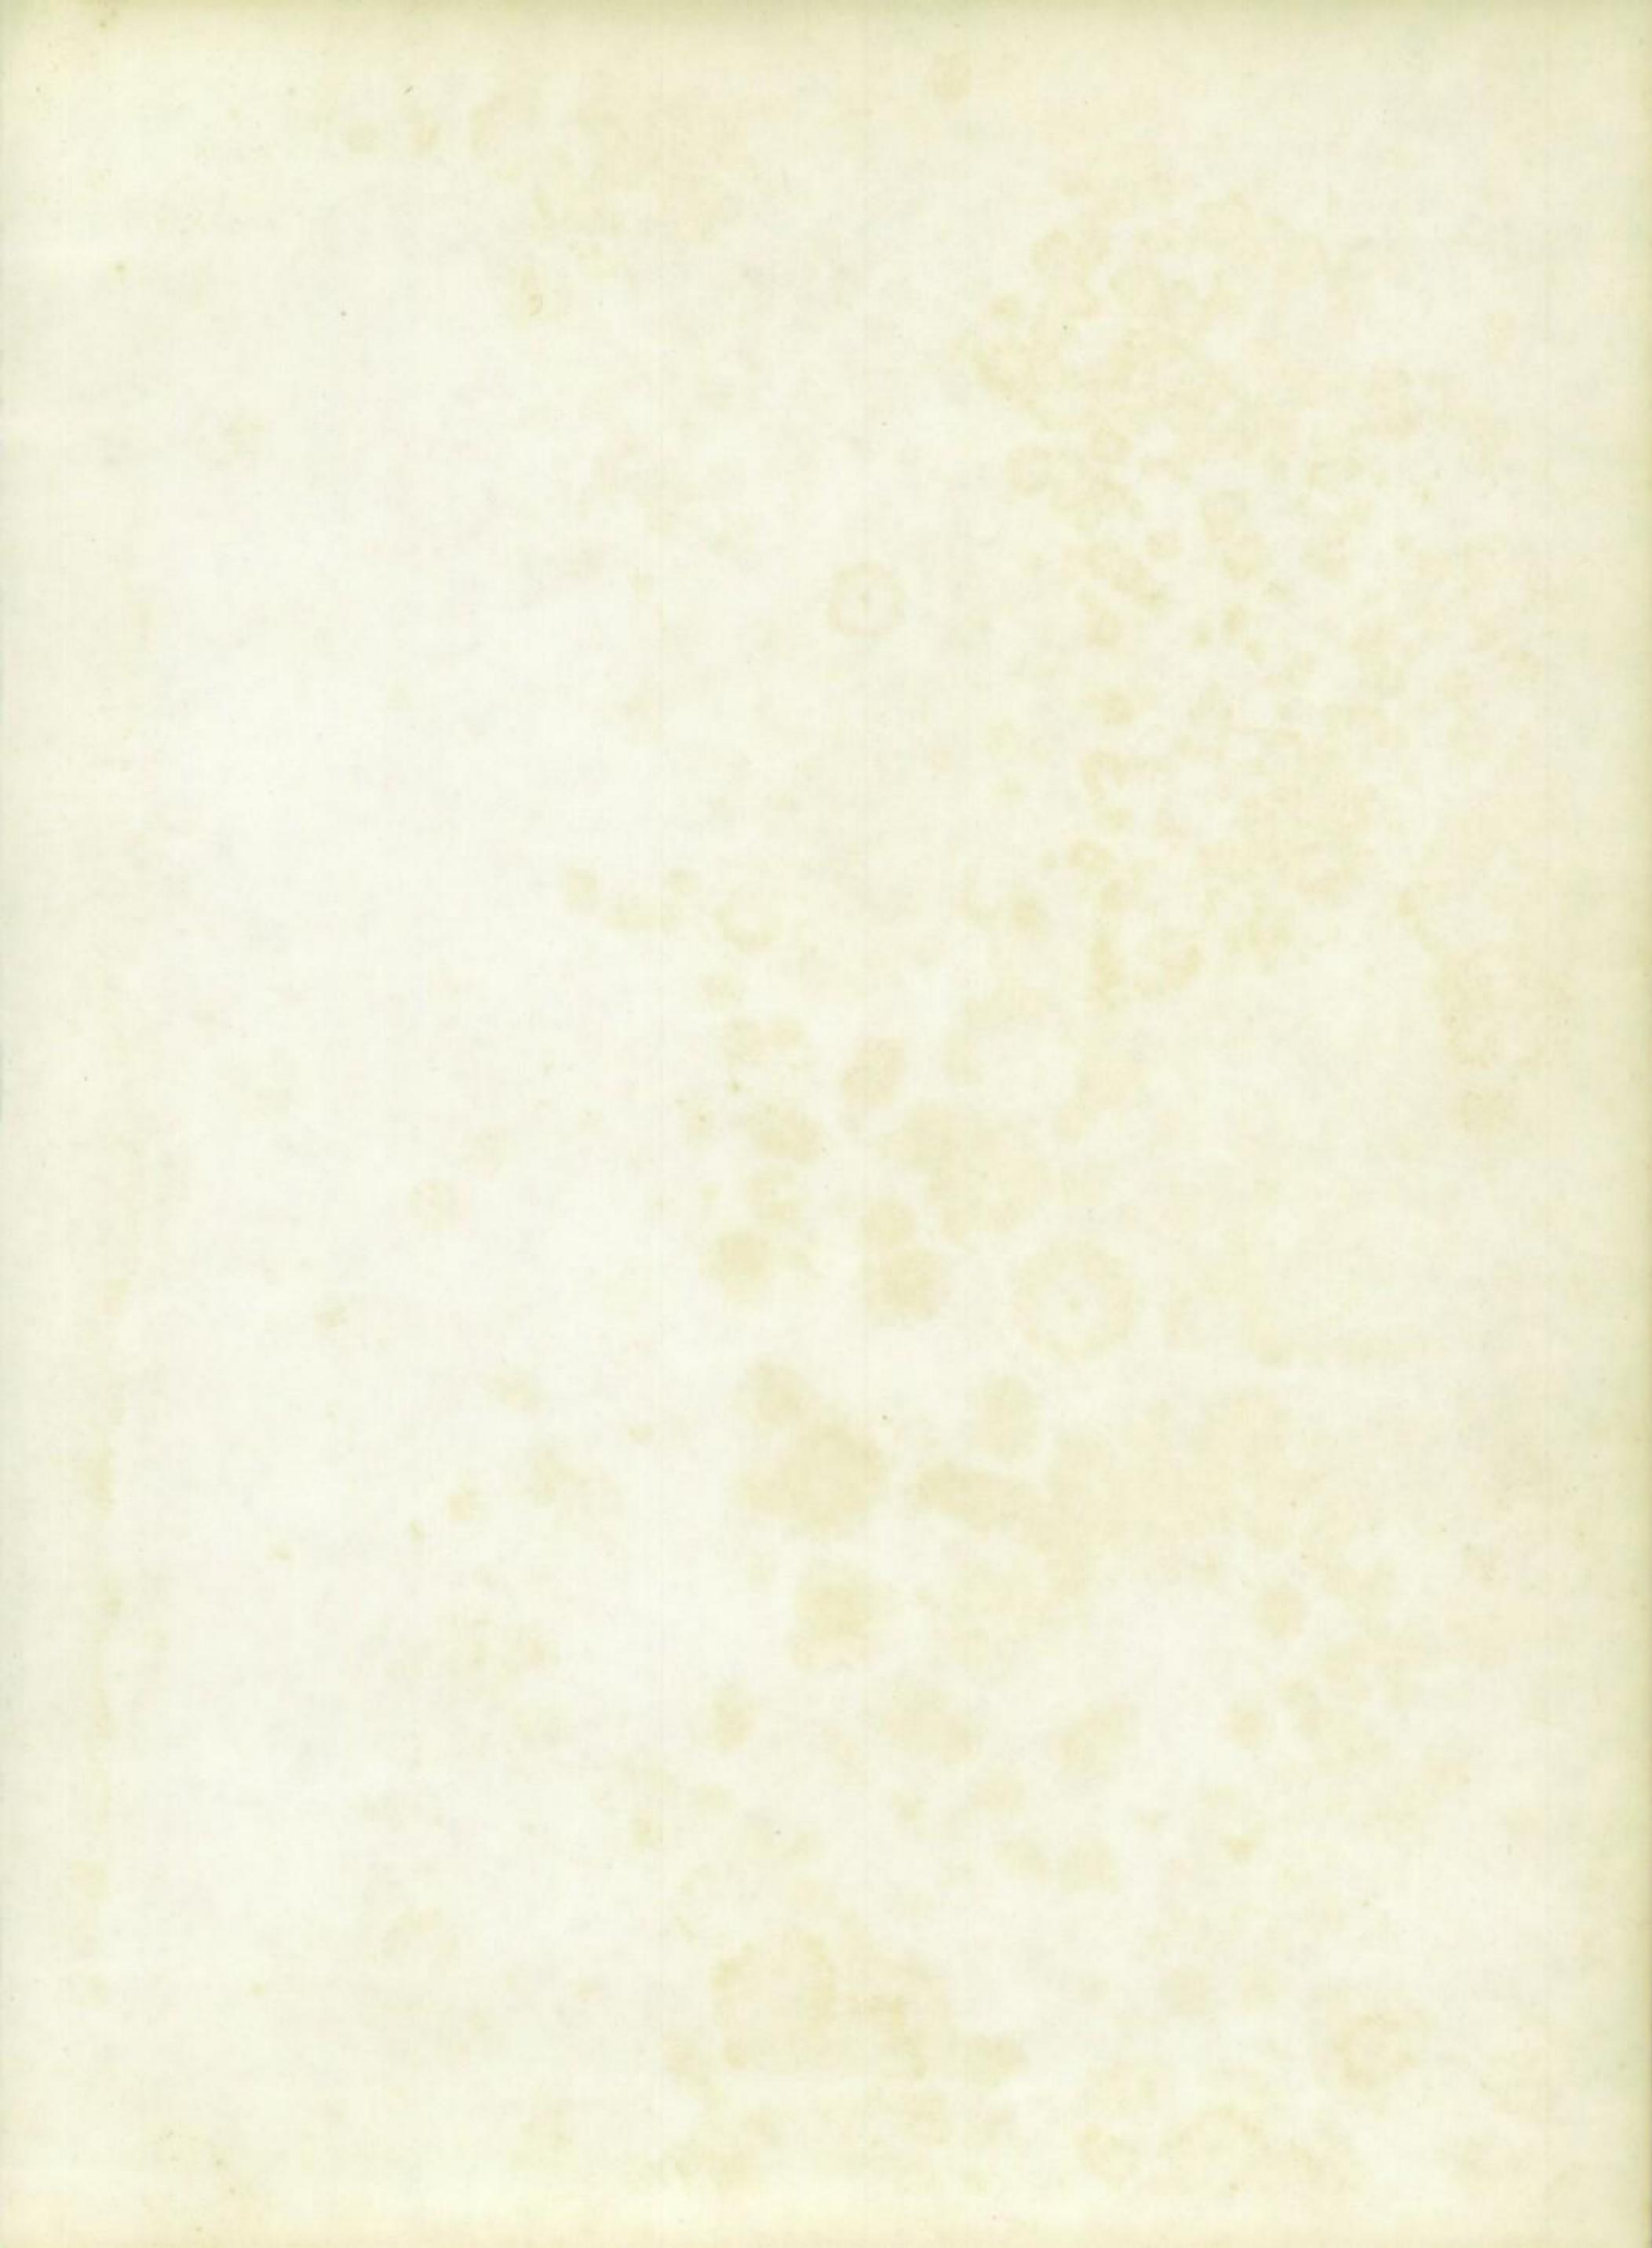

We, the Savage Staff, of 1980 would like to dedicate this portion of the yearbook to our advisor, Mrs. Charlene Peters. This picture shows a small portion of the hard work she puts into the Savage annual.
